Poznań Croissant Museum and Experience - keepsake gadget

In Poznań Croissant Museum you can discover the secrets of Poznań's greatest culinary treasure - the St. Martin's croissant. Visitors can look forward to a live telling of the St. Martin's croissant history: where the croissant's shape originated, what the ins and outs of its noble recipe are, and also to a lesson in baking the croissants together with a lesson of the Poznanian dialect. The museum is located in a historic townhouse in the Old Market Square, opposite the Town Hall, the Klasztorna side-entrance. Inside of the townhouse there is an original, 500-year-old Renaissance-gothic ceiling. From the windows of the museum, Poznań's famous billy goats are very well visible, which is an added attraction of the forenoon show.
