

Escape rooms in Poznan

Escape rooms have gained popularity in the recent years. The rules of the game state require groups of 2-5 people to escape a closed room in a given, limited period of time. There is no need for brutal force, or breaking the door down - all it takes is an active imagination, heightened senses and the ability to work as a team.

In Poznań, as many as 40 escape rooms are now available. Some of them offers exciting games also in English! They are meant to intrigue, entertain and scare. Each particular room is a different form of game play. The screenwriters have put a lot of effort into designing the rooms in order to make the game interesting, original and challenging all the way till the very end.

Below you can find some propositions for an escape room adventure.

Zaginiony Officer (The Lost Officer)

1942 - German bunker somewhere on the front line. It is here, in addition to the sounds of war turmoil, the roar of gunfire and firing from machine guns, horrible songs can be heard at night. Although the power outages are here on the agenda, strange, ethereal figures traverse the corridors and sinister whispers heard behind their backs, when nobody else is in the vicinity bring a depressive atmosphere here.

Everything goes quiet when suddenly one of the officers disappears. Can you explain the mystery of unprecedented phenomena? Will you find out what happened to the officer?
