

Poznań is the official Polish Tourist Brand

Poznań is a city that successfully combines the functions of a fair city, which it has been for centuries with the possibility of rest. The multitude of attractions, successfully promoted, attracts tourists from all over the world. High places in competitions and rankings are a well-deserved reward and confirmation of a strong position - wrote the jury of the competition.