

Ławica Golf Poznań

Ławica Golf is a unique, nine-hole golf course - the only one in Poznań area. It's a great place for both beginners and advanced players.

The pitch & putt course is perfectly suited for both first steps in golf, and improving your short game. The course's construction offers a challenge for advanced players, while remaining accessible to those whose golfing adventure has only just begun.

Ławica Golf has a wide training offer, tailored to the needs and capabilities of each and all. For those not sure whether or not golf can become their new favorite form of free-time activity, the center offers free weekend demonstration lessons, which allow the future adepts of the sport of golfing to familiarize themselves with the specifics of the game.

Experienced players also have a putting green with natural grass at their disposal, as well as two bunkers located directly by the driving range, a number of unique areas made of grass, as well as shelters and playing mats.

Another advantage is the large open area offering similar training conditions as those found on golf courses.
