

Meskalina

Club and cafe with a unique atmosphere, situated in the very heart of Poznań, in a modernist building of Arsenal Gallery smack in the middle of the Old Market Square.

Meskalina is the younger sister of Meskal, an iconic establishment situated at Nowowiejskiego Street - the home of the artistic boheme and students from nearby universities. Now you can also meet them here, as Meskalina continues her older brother's traditions.

Thanks to a simple and functional interior decor, the locale can be effortlessly adjusted to the requirements of a concert, an art exhibition, a film projection or a theater show. Meskalina is a boutique club, offering 130 places in the winter, and adding an outside beer garden with a music stage and a kids' playground in the summer.
