

Dandy from Mosina Monument

The Dandy from Mosina Monument is located by the Art Gallery at Niezłomnych St. The legend about it is connected with quartering of the army of hetman Czarniecki in Mosina for the winter 1659/1660.

The quartering squad was given new elegant uniforms from the Mosina tailors, made in the Swedish fashion. When the squad later arrived to the concentrated royal forces in the spring, they were immediately called "the dandies from Mosina".
