

Arkady Fiedler Workshop-Museum

The Museum-Workshop of Arkady Fiedler, writer, journalist and adventurer. The Arkady Fiedler Museum is run by the legacy's proud family and was opened on January 1, 1974. The museum is housed in the family's old house in Puszczykowo near Poznan.

Exhibition:

Ritual masks, human head trophies, tropical butterflies, crocodiles. Outside, in the Garden of Cultures and Tolerance you can admire a unique in Europe collection of exotic monuments, for example an accurate copy of a statue from the Easter Island and monuments of Aztec gods. The actual size replica of a famous "Santa Maria", the ship of Christopher Columbus, makes a huge impression.
