We assist event organizers in regional market research and the professional creation of a comprehensive offer, suited to individual criteria. As part of our standard offer, we provide:

- support with the choice and consulting the event date,
- access to a state of the art database of conference, accommodation, gastronomic and service facilities and companies,
- direct access to service providers,
- aid with obtaining preferential rates for public transport, conference room rental, accommodation bookings and the organization of accompanying services,
- support with BID city offer development for subjects aiming to become the designated event's host,
- aid with obtaining official support from the city,
- developing personalized tourist programs as well as printed informational materials available in Polish and foreign language versions (city maps, guides, leaflets),
- information, photographs and presentations about Poznań, available to use for business purposes,
- creating a dedicated event subpage on the Poznan.Travel web portal,
- servicing of dedicated info points and welcome desks,
- aid with official procedures (permits, approvals, letters of support, patronages, recommendations),
- aid with arranging meetings on the highest official range as well as official inaugural speeches,
- substantive and organizational support within the execution of the event itself.

After having given us a brief description of the planned event, the organizer will promptly receive a personalized report concerning the organizational conditions of the planned conference or congress. This is a quick and comfortable way of obtaining initial market research which, after the verification of the sent offer, will enable a choice of date, attractive rate offers and a range of competent business partners.
